

SUSI SANCHEZ, AIA, LEED AP
Principal

Susi Sanchez is key to the conception and realization of the firm's educational, cultural, civic, corporate, and residential projects across the United States. Susi has more than fifteen years of project management and design leadership experience, and serves as the Managing Principal for the firm. She brings a keen sensibility in effectively leading multi-disciplinary project teams; managing project deliverables, schedules and budgets; and communicating and collaborating with clients and project stakeholders. Susi serves in a leadership role with Charles Rose, working to ensure continuity of the design vision and project goals throughout conceptual design, documentation, and construction administration.
